COUNTY VOTES NIXON EDGE OVER KENNEDY

POLICE CHIEF Roland Petrocchi (far right), Capt. Roy Beecher and muni garage mechanic inspect '59 patrol car damaged October 28 in the chase of a reckless driver on Junipero Serra. Officer Steve Steen was suspended for having his wife in the police vehicle during his pursuit of the high-speed motorist. Steen intends to appeal the suspension before the personnel board.

Masked Bandits Get $300 But Overlook 'More'

Three masked men invaded Gene Compton's restaurant at 391 South Mayfair in Westlake about 5 a.m. Monday morning, assaulted and tied up manager James Matthews, 66, and escaped with $300 cash and $900 in checks from a safe behind the main counter.

Matthews was alone in the restaurant and was accosted by the trio as he was attempting to unlatch the front door. He said one wielded a sawed-off shotgun and warned "I'll blow your head off."

The trio dragged the manager 75 feet from the front of the store to the main counter, then ordered him to open the safe. This done, Matthews was bound with a five-foot rope and gagged with a handkerchief.

The invaders also took Matthews' wallet before they left.

Investigating Officer James Bergstrom learned that the robbers apparently had their auto parked on Lake Merced boulevard. They were not seen fleeing the area in a car, however.

The $300 cash consisted of

Personnel Board Hearing

Suspended Patrolman To Fight Petrocchi's Edict On 'Principle'

Daly City Patrolman Steve Steen today said he would appeal a 30-day suspension slapped on him last week by Police Chief Roland Petrocchi for an alleged infraction of departmental rules—allowing his wife to stay in his patrol car while he gave chase to a reckless driver.

Steen, who unavoidably wrecked his patrol car in the episode, said attorney Gregory Stout of San Francisco would represent him in a hearing he will request before the city personnel board.

The 33-year-old officer, a University of California graduate, insists that he "was" authorized to transport his wife in the patrol car and that his decision to pursue the high-speed driver was logical and a matter of judgment.

Petrocchi believes otherwise. The chief maintains Steen clearly violated the department regulation against having "unauthorized" individuals in police vehicles and he challenges Steen's judgment in pursuing the auto when a second patrol vehicle, operated by officer Ralph Warren, was in the area investigating the reckless driver call.

"The suspension," said Petrocchi, "was not ordered because the patrol car was wrecked."

"All our personnel are aware that it is against the rules to transport unauthorized passengers, and no such permission was given Steen. No one has the authority to okay such transportation, and even if it were approved, the officer should know that it would be in violation of the rules."

Steen declared he has "nothing against Petrocchi or anyone else in the department, but I must contest this suspension on principle . . . that I was au-

'Loitering' Ordinance For Parks?

Daly City's Parks and Recreation Commissioners will ask the council for an ordinance to forbid loitering in city parks after dark.

The idea is that of Commissioner Ed Cavagnaro who recently asked for a ruling on the legality of such an ordinance. Cavagnaro, absent from last week's commission meeting, earlier suggested the measure to curb park vandalism and child molestations.

Mrs. Ann Eason also was absent last week, so the commission tabled a vote on the request.

In other matters, Department Director Chuck Vincent reported on the planting of 18 palm trees by Parks Chief August Conci on the Mission street center strip, completion of the Westlake main library landscaping by Conci, partial fencing for the middle level of Edgewood park, the fact no money is in the present city budget for a PTA-petitioned clubhouse for Lincoln Park, and that the city has set aside $20,000 for basic site work at Westmoor Park below the high school.

Recreation Supervisor Rich Watso reported that the city-sponsored touch-football program has 18 teams and about 288 boys in action.

Vincent also told plans for formation of a Jr. High School Teen Club, along the lines of the very successful city-sponsored Hi-Fi Teen Club, present membership 650. The department head's Halloween activity report was that all events "went off smoothly and the youngsters were well behaved."

There was only one application on the agenda facing Com-

Council Schedule

Daly City councilmen have regular meetings on November 14 and 28 at City Hall, starting at 8 p.m. Site is 75 Wellington avenue, second floor.

Younger, Dolwig, Francis Re-elected

COLMA VETERAN, 69, UPSET BY SAN BRUNAN; JIM O'KEEFE GAINS SUPERIOR COURT POST

James (Jim) Fitzgerald unseated eight-year incumbent Supervisor Tom Callan Sr. of Colma by 1815 votes Tuesday in the closest race on the long county ballot.

The 41-year-old San Bruno civic leader polled 78,363 votes to 76,548 for the 69-year-old chairman of the county board. The outcome paralleled the June primary when Fitzgerald nudged Callan by 2740 votes—48,036-45,296.

The county's traditionally strong Republican sentiment prevailed in the major partisan races.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon tallied 4476 more votes than President-elect John F. Kennedy. The final count was 98,605-94,129.

J. Arthur Younger, 9th District Congressman, was re-elected by decisively defeating Demo Dr. John Kaster, 110,626 to 78,279.

The 25th Assembly District battle between incumbent Louis Francis, 37, and Demo Robert Hardgrove, 41, was closer than expected. Francis retained his job

State Senator Richard Dolwig, 21st District, was re-elected, beating William Gately, 106,879 to 77,894.

City attorney James (Jim) O'Keefe of Menlo Park assumed the Superior Court bench by downing Millbrae's Louis E. Wexler, 97,841 to 63,973.

County voters rejected state propositons 1 (water bonds) and 15 (senate reapportionment) by overwhelming tallies. Water bonds lost 119,794 to 55,990, and the reapportionment proposal was turned down, 138,536 to 28,406.

A breakdown on how the north county voted Tuesday will be available for next week's publication.

Santa Rosan Booked For Drunk Driving On Mission Street

A charge of drunk driving was filed by Daly City police against J. B. Mills, 39, Santa Rosa gas station attendant, Friday at 4:10 a.m. after the latter failed roadside and hospital sobriety tests here.

Officer Al Nicolini arrested Mills after pursuing his weaving sedan south on Mission from Westlake avenue to Market street. A pint of whiskey and a fifth of wine were found in the front seat of Mills' car, according to Nicolini's report.

Bail was set at $525.

Woman Forced Into Apartment, Assaulted Here

A 23-year-old Daly City office worker told Daly City police Sunday that she was accosted while attempting to enter her Mission street apartment and was carried inside and criminally assaulted about 6 a.m. by a young Negro man.

The victim, taken to Junipero Serra Hospital by Patrolman James Doran for examination, said her attacker also stole $85 from her purse. She said he fled in a dark green car but she was unable to get the license number.

According to the woman, the suspect followed her up the stairs to her door, asked if a "Mr. Jones lives here," then capped his hand over her mouth and forced her into the apartment where the attack ensued on the floor.

She described the suspect as about 5-11 and 160 pounds.

Woman Who Drove Car Into Fireman Sentenced To Jail

Sharon Pearl Hutchins, the 23-year-old 146 Woodrow street resident who mistakenly rammed her auto into a Daly City fireman at Marchbanks Park, last week pled guilty as charged in municipal court and was sentenced to five days in county jail.

Police booked the woman for driving while under the influence of a non-narcotic drug. She was picked up by Officers William Schumacher and Robert Crooker last Thursday on a warrant.

Fireman Richard Verducci suffered leg bruises in the mishap. He said Miss Hutchins drove her car towards him while he was attempting to disperse a swarm of bees.

VANDALS CLOUT MORMON CHURCH

Vandals did damage totaling $300 over the weekend to the Latter Day Saints Church under construction at 1399 Brunswick street, police were informed Monday morning.

Glen Nielsen of Los Gatos, one of the contractors, said the raiders punched holes in the sheet rock walls, scuffed the freshly painted hallway, and broke two plate glass windows.

Big Assessed Valuation Jump 'Limits' Sanitation Tax Increase To 3 Cents

An almost $8.5 million increase is assessed valuation should mean only a 3 cents tax increase in the North County Sanitation District this fiscal year instead of an expected 20 cent hike to finance a two-year improvements program, directors learned at Monday's meeting.

The new valuation totals $60,689,705 compared to $52,246,240 for fiscal '59-'60. This year the district will spend approximately $100,000 towards purchase of a new digester and grit remover to "balance out" the existing plant in Westlake.

Ten bids were opened Monday for the digester and grit remover.

Referred to the district staff for study and a recommendation, the bids ranged from a low of $203,367 (Dale Williams Inc. and Vanucci Bros. Construction) to $266,510 asked by Pearce, McAllister, and Thorsell Inc. of San Bruno.

In another agenda item Monday, director Edward McDonald (county supervisor) and Bob St. Clair approved director Joseph Verducci's proposal that the twice-monthly sanitation board meetings be changed to 11 a.m. instead of meeting at 9 a.m. the first and third Mondays of each month. The 11 a.m. sessions will start in January.

McDonald ruled out suggested night meetings of the board, stating that county supervisors have enough night meetings and that such a change would work an inconvenience on the district and its personnel.

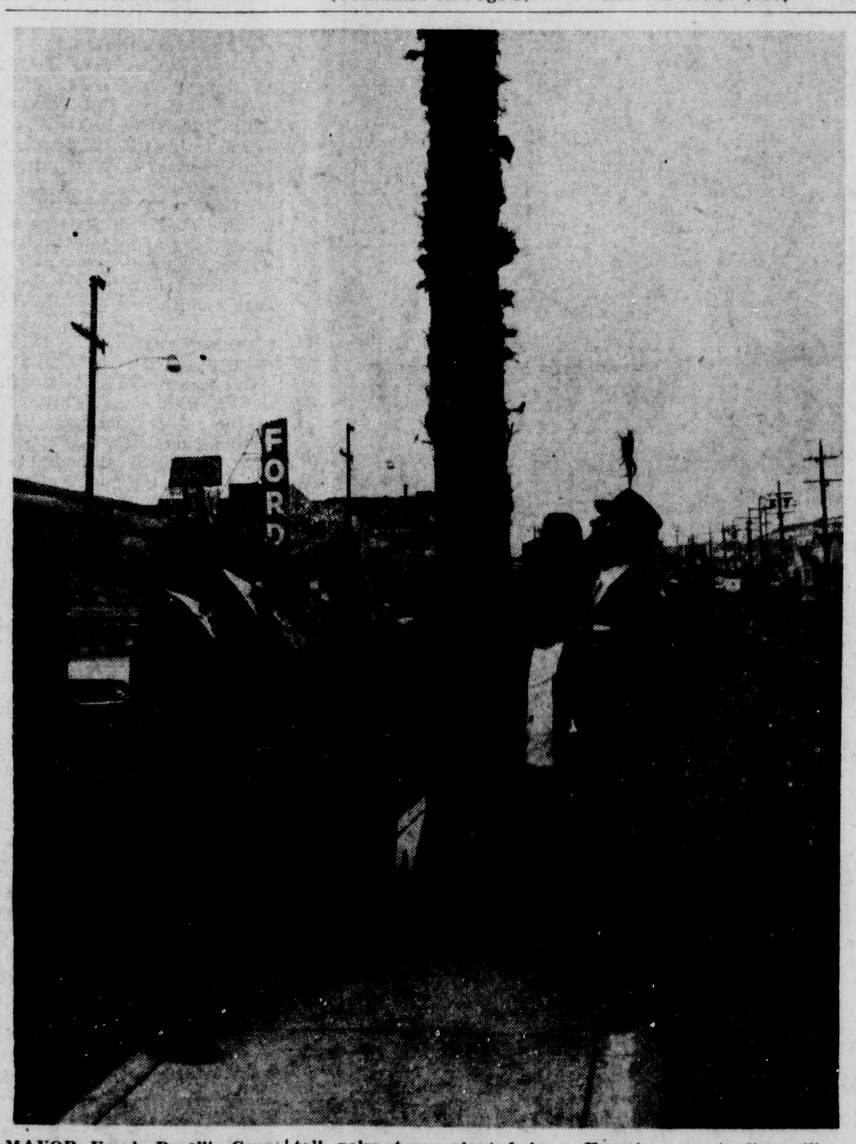
Verducci had sought the change because the 9 a.m. meetings conflict with his teaching schedule at San Francisco State College. He said he would be able to attend the 11 a.m. sessions.

St. Clair said the proposal of the Citizens Committee for Good Government to move board meetings to City Hall to obtain more public attendance wasn't practical because "most of our meetings involve technical matters and attendance hasn't been very good . . . and I don't think a change in the site would bring more public response."

He added that he welcomes the public to the meetings.

BUDGET SAVINGS BURGLAR HUNTED

Daly City police are still looking for the burglar who got $417 cash, two cases of coffee valued at $16.29, and several cartons of cigarettes last week after he raided Budget Savings Market, 6001 Mission, via the rear door. Owner Silvio Olcese discovered the break-in Wednesday morning.



MAYOR Frank Pacelli, Councilman Edward Dennis and Parks Superintendent August Conci were joined by lower Mission street merchants last week when they inspected the tall palm trees planted in a beautification project for the commercial strip. Completion of rail tracks removal and resurfacing on Mission from San Jose avenue north to the San Francisco county line will cap the city council's initial Mission rehabilitation program. Off-street parking remains the biggest problem to be solved.

22-Member Citizens Group To Spearhead School Bond Drive

Ninety-nine leading citizens from Daly City-Colma, Pacifica, Bayshore and Brisbane last week got the ball rolling to lead a "yes" campaign for the February 7 elementary and high school district bond election.

Jefferson Elementary District's $2.8 million bond and $7 million state loan request and Jefferson High District's $4 million bond and $1.5 million state aid proposal received unanimous endorsement.

Trustee chairmen Frank Verducci (JESD) and Lyal Ingersoll (JUHS) introduced Superintendents Richard Foster and Edward Morgan who explained their needs, answered questions, and urged full public support.

It was decided to appoint an executive board of 22 citizens to lead the campaign. Twelve of these will spearhead the Daly City-Colma drive (high school and elementary), six will organize the Pacifica movement, and there will be two leaders each in Bayshore and

Down Among Those Sheltering Palms Early One Morning

Drivers—spare those trees!

Those lofty palms freshly planted on Mission street, that is.

Eighteen—costing a total of $2471 — were planted by Parks Supt. August Conci's crews last Thursday and Friday. Monday morning about 3:50, driver Joseph K. Jordan of South San Francisco fell asleep at the wheel and plowed into the center strip near School street.

He escaped without a scratch.

Not so the palm tree. It was damaged to the extent of $300.

Officer Al Nicolini checked the incident and ticketed Jordan, 95 Chestnut street, for negligent driving.

V-Grande-Thornton PTA Reports On Halloween Party

All the spooks and goblins were out for a Halloween party held in the Vista Grande multi-purpose room, sponsored by the Vista Grande-Thornton PTA.

The multi-purpose room was decorated with corn stalks, pumpkins and orange and black paper chains. The students made masks and Halloween pictures and a colorful totem pole that were also used as decorations.

Mr. Baker, recreation chairman, planned the evening. There was a parade by grades, judging for prizes, trick or treat candy given, then cartoons to end the gala evening.

There were 72 prizes given on the basis of originaltiy, most comical, and the prettiest. These were divided into classes by age, then for girls and boys. First prize was a trophy and there were second and third prize ribbons.

Happy Blue Birds Recruit At Colma

"Be a Blue Bird" was the theme of a party held by the Happy Little Blue Bird group on November 2. Each girl invited a second grader as her guest since the purpose was to try for another Blue Bird group at Colma K-6 school and thus earn a Golden Jubilee Charm.

GUIDANCE FIELD TESTS GIVEN TO W'MOOR JUNIORS

As a part of the National Defense Education Act, Jefferson Union High School District is participating in a study in the guidance field, which will necessitate testing students now enrolled in school.

This week and again at future dates this semester the junior class at Westmoor High School has been selected to participate in a district-wide testing program. Initially the students will take an aptitude test, the School and College Ability Test, and later take some subject achievement tests, as well as the Sequential Test of Educational Progress.

Collectively the results of the tests will be primarily used in educational research for the three high schools. However, each student will have the results of his tests interpreted to him and evaluate in terms of his educational and vocational goals. The test results will not be used in grading in high school.

Classes' and individual's scores will not be used except as a guidance tool.

Students are encouraged to perform to the best of their ability in order to gain for themselves and the district the greatest benefit from this testing opportunity.

Although test scores will not be used in the program immediately, Dr. John Ivan, curriculum director for the school district, reports that results will eventually be used to assist in determining placement, diagnosis, assessment, prediction and evaluation.

MARINE Pvt. Guy E. Allen (left), son of Mrs. Eileen A. Allen of 655 San Diego avenue and Pvt. George F. The 11-week course included instruction in all basic military subjects and infantry weapons.

Girl Scouts Will Send Trio To Convention

Thirty-fifth National Girl Scout Convention for active adult members will be held in St. Louis, Missouri, November 14-18.

Three delegates from the North San Mateo Council will attend the convention and later make their report at a delegate council meeting here.

Those attending are the Mesdames: Melvin Everhart, president of the North San Mateo Council; E. E. Gould, executive director of the council; and Dale Williams, second vice president and a Daly City resident. Mrs. Williams is a very active Girl Scout and was district chairman in Daly City for a two-year period.

The convention will be attended by approximately 4000 delegates from all over the United States.

Findings of delegates will be reported at the annual delegate council meeting on November 29, at 9:30 a.m. in the War Memorial Building, Daly City. All interested Girl Scout members are invited to attend the meeting.

The years 1960-61-62 are called the birthday years for Girl Scouts since October 31, 1960, was the centennial of founder Juliette Low's birth. March, 1962, is Girl Scouts 50th birthday. The yellow rose, de-Scouting, will be a feature of the birthday year's plantings. Girl Scouts across the nation will be planting the yellow roses in celebration of the golden anniversary.

The climax of the birthday years will come with the Birthday Roundup from July 18-31 of 1962, in Vermont on Lake Champlain.

Girl Scouts of the Daly City-Colma area are planning to enter into the celebrations of the 50th birthday of Daly City next spring.

NEW SPRAY BOON TO CAMPAIGN AGAINST MOTHS

Housewives and pest control operators may soon be able to protect fabrics permanently against damage by moths and beetles, using a non-poisonous liquid.

At the same time they can clean, fireproof and fungus-proof the carpet, drapery, or other fabric, suggests scientist Roy J. Pence of the University of California, Los Angeles.

Pence has perfected a spray that makes fabrics as untasty to moths and carpet beetles as a rug is to a human being. The insects just can't find anything nourishing in Pence's treated fabric — even when he deliberately smears the fabric with supplementary "goodies."

Contrary to housewife lore, cigaret and cigar ash is considered a minor goody for these insects. Dhring research in the entomology department at UCLA, Pence noted that such ash contains micronutrients that attract rather than repel marauding insect larvae.

Other contaminants relished by carpet beetles and clothes moths are beer, perspiration, urine, and many spilled foods containing all the B-vitamin nutrients needed by the pests.

Pence had an idea: Why not add to fabrics chemicals that look and taste like these vitamin-loaded contaminants but that fatally upset the insect's digestive system?

The idea worked. Materials known as antimetabolites, applied to fabrics, canceled out the nutrient values of vitamins and amino acids. The antimetabolites can be put in a commercially marketable aerosol bomb or water-based spray, Pence believes.

wrapped nickels, dimes, quarters and halves. The thieves overlooked another safe that contained more than the raided one.

Matthews, considerably unnerved by the episode, couldn't give much of a description of the trio because of their masks. The shotgun toter wore a black raincoat. Suspect number two was attired in a tan suit. That's all the manager could remember.

No suspicious vehicles were spotted in the area by Bergstrom.

Daly City police are investigating reports of persons seen in the shopping center area a few hours before the holdup.

Oceana Isn't Oceana Now—Terra Nova Starts At Westmoor

Pacifica youngsters (freshmen, sophs and juniors) who attend Westmoor High in the afternoon session no longer belong to "Oceana" high school.

The student executive board has voted to rename the school "Terra Nova High" and a student ballot produced "Tigers" as the nickname for Terra Nova athletic teams.

Reason for the name switch is that all Pacifica students next year, starting in September, will be housed at Terra Nova High in Linda Mar. Earlier it was expected that Oceana High in Sharp Park would open next fall the same time as Terra Nova. But Oceana in Sharp Park won't be finished until September of 1962.

A flip of the coin produced "Oceana" for Westmoor's afternoon session this semester.

Sounds confusing, but it isn't.

Oceana is now Terra Nova at Westmoor.

Fortunately, landmark Jefferson High isn't involved.

Brakeless Old Coupe Causes Knowles Tieup

Traffic at the Knowles avenue-Junipero Serra intersection was interrupted last Friday morning about 8:30 when a brakeless, westbound '33 Dodge coupe driven by Elesandro Garcia, 458 Miriam street, sideswiped another auto waiting for the signal to change and then vaulted up on the northeast corner embankment and overturned.

Garcia, 24, who works as a repair man for Bruno's Body Shop, was cited by Officer Les Bastedo for lack of brakes on his vehicle.

Although he suffered an arm injury, Garcia refused hospital treatment, Bastedo said. The coupe was towed away.

The sideswiped auto was driven by Frances M. Sedeno, 38, of 2843 Folsom street, San Francisco. Damage was to the right rear fender.

Army Specialist Four John M. Myrick, 19, whose wife, Jessie, lives at 7301 Mission street, Daly City, has been assigned to the 67th Artillery, a Nike-Hercules missile unit in San Rafael.

Specialist Myrick, a driver in the artillery's Battery D, entered the Army in 1958. Son of Mrs. Edith Fee, Kernville, Myrick attended Kernville High School.

RATLESNAKE HITCHES RIDE

One warm evening last summer, a man stepped into his car near Susanville and drove off down the road.

thorized and exercised proper judgment under the circumstances."

"This suspension amounts to a $550 fine—my monthly salary—and I do not think it is fair. I will have to look for a temporary job to pay my bills," the patrolman added.

Steen said he would disclose who authorized his trip home in the police car with his wife for midnight lunch when he makes his appeal. Petrocchi said his men in charge in headquarters the evening of the incident "did not give such permission . . . it's against the rules, no doubt about it."

Liability for injuries and property damage was cited by Petrocchi in explaining the long-standing departmental rule.

"If an unauthorized passenger is injured in a mishap such as this, the liability could fall back on the city."

Both Steen and his wife, Tanya, were badly bruised in the mishap. A second vehicle—also not responsible for the smashup — sustained heavy damage when the patrol sedan plowed into it. Steen could not avoid the collision as the second car swerved to avoid the fleeing vehicle which spun around on Junipero Serra near old Chinese Cemetery road and sped off in the opposite direction—back towards Daly City.

The reckless driver, a sailor assigned to Hunter's Point, was apprehended the next evening and fined $100 in municipal court.

Some observers believe Steen, in getting a suspension, was fortunate since the chief could have asked for dismissal. Both City Manager Edward Frank and Petrocchi agreed that the suspension was an inevitable procedure.

Date of Steen's appearance before the personnel board had not been calendared at press time. The officer may report back to duty on December 1.

National School 'Reader' Features Daly City School

"My Weekly Reader," the children's newspaper used throughout the nation in the public schools, in an issue titled "New Schools Are Built" highlighted Daly City's well-known Vista Mar school.

The article was written for second graders, showing a large picture of the school and saying, "New schools do not look like old schools. Some new schools have new shapes. One school is round."

Boy Drowns In Sewer Outlet On Oceana Site

Funeral services were held Monday for six-year-old Patrick Foley, Pacifica youngster who drowned Thursday afternoon when he fell into a storm sewer outlet pool on the Oceana High School site in Sharp Park.

The victim was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foley, 333 Carmel avenue—about a block from the school site.

Patrick's companion led authorities to the scene a few hours after the mishap. Terrified by the episode, the other boy was unable to explain his small pal's misfortune at first. Then he told his mother and the tragedy was discovered.

High School Supt. Edward Morgan said the victim, according to his sobbing companion, worked his way between protective bars on the sewer outlet, crawled into the pipe, then fell into a 10-foot deep water sump.

Grading contractor at the site, Kebble Construction of San Jose, reported that apparently no one was in the area when the two boys approached the outlet—just east of Highway No. 1.

Allocations Board To Weigh $300,000 JESD Bldg. Grant

Jefferson Elementary District's request for approximately $300,000 for construction of a central administration building at the corner of Lincoln avenue and Lakeshire drive in Westlake is on the State Allocations Board agenda this Thursday.

District Supt. Richard L. Foster and Asst. Supt. Dr. David Shapiro will attend the meeting in Sacramento.

The contract has been advertised and bids are expected within two months. The district figures construction will take about seven months and completion is expected next summer.

Current district headquarters at 48 Park Plaza drive, Westlake, are rented from Doelger Corporation for $500 a month.

'MAIL EARLY FOR CHRISTMAS' URGED BY POSTMASTER MURPHY

Faced with the possibility that the 1960 Christmas season will set an all-time holiday mailing record, Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy of Daly City announced today that he's starting his annual "Mail Early For Christmas" campaign immediately.

The postmaster offers these helpful mailing tips to insure delivery of your Christmas cards and gifts on time:

First, check your Christmas card list very carefully—make sure each address is complete with full name, street and number, city, zone and state. Second, for your Christmas gift packages, stock up now on heavy wrapping paper, sturdy corrugated cartons, strong cord, and paper adhesive tape. Third, remember that you can include your Christmas card or letter inside your gift packages by adding the appropriate First Class postage to the package itself. Fourth, buy your postage stamps now. Don't wait until the last minute when long lines form at the stamp windows.

The Post Office will help you plan your Christmas mailings. The Post Office will also supply free labels which read, "All for Local Delivery" and "All for Out of Town Delivery," so that you can sort your Christmas cards into two groups, with addresses all facing one way, thus insuring fast delivery.

Use only First Class postage on your Christmas cards. Cards sent by First Class four-cent, or seven-cent Air Mail, may include personal hand-written messages. First Class mail also receives full forwarding and return service. Don't fail to put your return address on every Christmas card envelope. Not only is this socially correct, but it helps tremendously to keep the mailing lists of both you and your friends up to date.

Postmaster Murphy says that with your help he'll get the Christmas mails through on time. He is making many advance preparations to handle the 1960 Christmas mail rush by putting on extra mail clerks and carriers, and by arranging for expanded facilities all around.

Murphy requests that you make it a point to mail your Christmas cards and gifts for the Eastern States and most distant points well before December 10. Those for nearby destinations should be mailed by December 15th, or at least a week before Christmas.

LAW IN ACTION

WATCHDOGS

Plato likened the guardians of his Republic to watchdogs, fierce to foes, and kind to friends.

California's 58 grand juries which our superior courts select are such guardians.

Nobody in his right mind goes around taking on the village tough by charging him with a crime.

This was especially unhealthy in early Britain. In 1164 the British parliament at Clarendon said: "If such men were suspected whom none wished or dared to accuse, the sheriff . . . should gather twelve men . . . to declare the truth." (About the crime).

From this declaration came our own grand jury's "true bills," indictments, or accusations.

Grand jury foremen used to write "Ignoramus" (we don't know) across the back of bills which lacked enough evidence to support an indictment.

For centuries the grand jury stood between the people and tyranny. Indeed, as a safeguard against the accusation of a possible tyrant, no federal court to this day can try a person unless a grand jury accuses him of a crime.

Of late in California grand juries indict only one in ten persons tried in our courts for felonies (crimes punishable by death or imprisonment).

Instead, the prosecutor most often brings accusations through complaints in a justice or municipal court. After due hearing these courts may dismiss or may hold an accused over for trial in the superior court. Do not confuse a grand jury's indictment with a conviction. No one is guilty until a trial court finds him so, or he himself pleads guilty.

But as its criminal work has gone down, the grand jury's other jobs have gone up. It can and does look into, criticize, and recommend ways to improve our city and county governments.

Grand juries cannot follow through on their recommendations. They can find facts and make reports, but must look to enlightened public opinion and conscientious public officers to put their recommendations into effect.

But perhaps a watchdog has done his best work when he has raised the alarm.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

State Parents And Teachers Board To Mull Textbooks, Desirable TV

Who should print your child's school books?

Which TV programs shoud you let your children view?

These and other topics will be the subject of reports to be submitted at the November meeting of the State Board of Managers, California Congress of Parents and Teachers. The meeting is scheduled for November 16 and 17 in Los Angeles at the Statler Hilton Hotel.

The report on school books will be submitted by Mrs. A. J. Williams of Oakland who is heading a committee study of the present PTA policy on the printing of textbooks for elementary schools.

Mrs. Williams' committee is re-evaluating the PTA policy, adopted in 1957, to the effect that school children should have the best books available and as economically as possible regardless of whether or not they are available from the State Printing Office. This policy is being re-evaluated in view of the current discussion between the State Board of Education and the State Legislature over use of State funds to buy textbooks from private printing firms.

The current PTA policy takes the attitude that whenever the State Board of Education recommends use of a privately printed book not available through the state printers that state funds be used to buy the book.

The question only concerns those books required for use in the elementary school system and which are provided free by the state to elementary grades.

Other matters upon which the Board of Managers will hear reports include alcohol education and specific suggestions to community leaders for eliminating activities harmful to children. Some of these reports will implement recommendations made following the White House Conference in Washington last March.

Mrs. Clinton Dickison, Teacher Education Chairman from Los Angeles, will also submit a report as to what the public can do to secure more well-trained teachers through cooperation with teacher training colleges. Mrs. R. J. Matheison will propose possible new loans to be granted by the PTA in teacher training and Mrs. Harry Eckes of Van Nuys, Honorary Life Membership chairman, will dispose scholarship and fellowship plans.

The teacher training and scholarship program of the PTA was in effect for fifteen years before the first earth satellite caused a renewed interest on the part of the general public in this matter of teacher training and education of our young people. The PTA scholarship and loan program is aimed at securing well-trained teachers and other youth leaders.

Report cards will be discussed by Dr. Stratton. The methods of reporting children's progress to the parents, and enabling parents to understand the report card philosophy will be the main ideas which Dr. Stratton will stress.

New Air Force Opportunities For Veterans

The Air Force has opened up its prior service program to allow in-grade return of former military personnel in needed skills, Master Sergeant Phil L. Wells of the Daly City recruiting office said today.

In commenting on this liberalized enlistment program, Sergeant Wells explained that it is now possible for ex-service men to enlist in the Air Force in grades ranging from Airman Second Class to Master Sergeant. He added, however, that grades authorized at the time of enlistment would be determined on the basis of the applicant's prior military experience. Former Army and Navy personnel may also apply for enlistment in the Air Force and they will receive consideration of a grade-for grade conversion provided they can meet other enlistment qualifications.

Under the Air Force's revised prior service enlistment program, approximately 9000 former service men holding critically needed skills will be taken aboard by the Air Force between now and July 1, 1961. The new program is not a completely open door to all former service men, Wells pointed out. However, it does provide a much greater opportunity of returning to service in the Air Force for those desiring to do so. All former military personnel interested in checking their qualifications for enlistment should contact Sergeant Wells at the U. S. Air Force's new location, 6268 Mission street, Daly City.

U.C.L.A. MEDICS LOCATE CENTER OF 'SHIVERING'

That tiny sector of the brain that controls our shivering response to cold has been located in experiments at the UCLA Medical School.

Physiologist Douglas Stuart has located a region in the rear portion of that part of the brain known as the hypothalamus that apparently initiates the shivering response.

When this region is electrically stimulated via a tiny electrode in experimental animals, they will shiver as if they were cold. When the same region is destroyed, the animals are unable to shiver in the presence of cold.

Shivering is Nature's way of generating heat economically, Stuart points out. It produces heat without external work, such as is necessary in running or jumping up and down.

In order to warm up the body appreciably shivering requires another action simultaneously. This involves a constricting of surface blood vessels, which helps preserve heat that would otherwise be dissipated into the air. This action also is controlled from the hypothalamus but from another portion of it.

Stuart's finding was reported recently at an international symposium on "Neural Factors in Temperature Regulation." The symposium was one of a series on Arctic Biology and Medicine being held at Ladd Air Force Base, Alaska, in cooperation with the University of Alaska.

High School Seniors, Graduates Reminded Of Navy ROTC Deadline

High school seniors and graduates have only until November 18 to apply for the Navy's Reserve Officers Training Corps. Applicants will take the nationwide competitive examination on December 10 as the first step toward an appointment as Midshipman.

Designed to supplement the officer output of the Naval Academy, the NROTC program makes it possible for a young man to earn a regular commission while studying at a civilian college of his choice which has an NROTC unit. All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives an annual retainer of $600 for four years. During the summers the student goes on interesting training cruises to many parts of the world. After completing the usual four-year college course, he is commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and goes on active duty as a prospective career officer with the Navy's far-flung fleets.

High school seniors and graduates who have reached the 17th anniversary of birth and have not reached the 21st anniversary of birth on July 1, 1961, may apply for the NROTC aptitude test. Those who make a qualifying score will be given a rigid physical examination early in 1961. From the number of qualified young men remaining in competition at least 1600 will be selected to begin their naval careers next September.

The NROTC college training program is also open to enlisted men on active duty with the Navy and Marines. A separate quota is established for applicants within these services.

Application forms are available at high schools, Navy Recruiting Stations, or from the Chief of Naval Personnel, Navy Department, Washington 25, D.C.

Miss Yeates registered for her final year in the School of Medicine along with over 900 students who will be attending classes in the college's eight schools. As a senior student, she will receive instruction in the clinical sciences on the Los Angeles campus of the College of Medical Evangelists. Her first two years of medical school were spent on the CME Loma Linda campus where she studied the basic sciences, the third year was in Los Angeles. The Southern California medical education center is owned and operated by the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Edyth took her pre-professional studies at San Francisco State College, receiving a BA degree in 1958. She is scheduled to receive the degree of Doctor of Medicine in 1961.

More Industry Needed To Raise Education Funds

No student has or will be turned away from the state colleges or the University of California because of the institutions' lack of funds, State Finance Director John E. Carr said recently on the University's Davis campus.

Speaking at the first University Meeting of the semester, Carr said the greatest financial problem facing California today is how to get the most from our educational dollar.

"In the competition for funds, some items will fall a little short. But it won't be education," he said.

The new master plan for higher education in California will play an important part in the budget allocations for the state colleges and the University, Carr said. One result of the master plan should be a clearer differentiation of function between the state college campuses as well as between the state colleges and the University.

California must broaden its tax base to meet its financial responsibility for higher education, he said. This means bringing in more industry to California.

AROUND TOWN

By ROY HURLBERT

DEATH of a six-year-old Sharp Park lad last week on the Oceana High site is a tragic reminder to parents that children should be instructed not to play around projects and buildings under construction—school or otherwise.

Adults are not always at these spots and the dangers are many.

Children do many things in their innocence that could lead to serious injury or fatality.

No one was truly more sorry about the Pacifica mishap than High School Superintendent Edward Morgan.

The shock isn't the reason for Sam's absence from his duties this week. Mrs. Ruth Chandler presented him with their fourth child last Friday at Kaiser Hospital. Sam has to stay home to tend the flock. The new little lady is Mary Anne. The Chandlers also have a girl, 6, and two boys, 12 and 9.

Veterans Administration Officials Meet With Eisenhower In Washington

A discussion of veterans' affairs by the President in a White House meeting with managers of Veterans Administration hospitals and offices was the highlight of his recent trip to Washington, Glenn Corbitt, manager of the VA Regional Office in San Francisco, said on his return home.

Dr. T. P. Crane, manager of the VA Hospital in San Francisco, was also in the party of VA officials that met the President.

The meeting with the President came at the close of a week's conference that drew top management people from more than 250 VA field stations to Washington to discuss mutual management problems and to listen to counsel on leadership from prominent leaders in government and private industry.

In complimenting VA employees in general on their devotion to duty, President Eisenhower said: "Besides thanking you, I must express very great personal satisfaction. I had, in Europe, the greatest number of people ever sent into the field under one command, and of that command over three million were Americans. They are the ones that are our responsibility. I saw them — many of you saw them—there and in the Pacific, dirty, muddy, sometimes cold and freezing, nearly always tired.

"Today, as I go back in memory to the days when I was living among these people all the time, I feel again that tremendous hope that some way they would get to know America's appreciation of the sacrifices they made and I think it is through you people, more than anyone else, that they do.

"So, my personal thanks on behalf of all those people who served and for the widows and orphans or dependents of those who did not come back."

The assembled managers from VA's 50-state field structure, including hospitals, regional offices and insurance offices, heard their chief, Sumner G. Whittier, Administrator of Veterans Affairs, touch upon organization, reporting and planning. The program was designed on a unique "give-and-take" plan with small discussion groups carrying on talks after hearing from Elmer Staats, deputy director, Bureau of the Budget; Oliver Meadows, staff director, House Committee on Veterans Affairs; Bryson Rash, news commentator for the National Broadcasting Company; Robert E. Merriam, deputy assistant to the President for Interdepartmental Affairs, and others.

"Through this conference, VA's service to veterans and their dependents, already considered to be at a high level of efficiency, will be further improved and accelerated," said Manager Corbitt.

What does it mean to be rated?

Not long ago men and women with coronary artery disease, tuberculosis or diabetes were unable to obtain life insurance. Today it is possible for many of these people to be accepted in a special premium classification. Technically speaking they are said to be "rated" policyholders. For many years Manufacturers Life has contributed leadership in this special field. Today we are well known for our progressive outlook and for the favourable premium rates being offered.

Actually 90% of the people applying for Manufacturers Life policies today are accepted at regular rates. Another 8½% are offered insurance at the lowest possible cost considering their particular physical condition, while only 1½% are declined. Whatever your needs, you can be sure of progressive life insurance service when you call the Man from Manufacturers.

Beating up road signs with bullets and rocks has gotten to be quite a game with the more irresponsible element in our citizenry, according to the National Automobile Club.

Aside from endangering the lives of motorists by obliterating messages that warn of dangers ahead, such a game makes the tax bite for all of us just a little bigger. In Utah alone, for instance, replacing such signs costs the state an average of $75,000 a year.

From 4 Educational TV Stations To 50 The Past Six Years

By MONA BAKER

In six years, from a beginning of four educational television stations to a total of 50 channels with 12 more under construction—this is the impressive growth of educational television throughout the United States, according to John White, president of the National Educational Television Center, who addressed a press luncheon during the recent NAEB Convention held in San Francisco.

Discussing the Center's programs, he commented: "I hope you know how lucky you are in San Francisco to have KQED" and went on to say that many of their outstanding programs have been produced by KQED. Prior to the luncheon we were given a preview of some of their new fall shows ranging from a fascinating program "Casals Master Class" with Pablo Casals, generally acknowledged as world's finest cellist, conducting a class at the University of California to "The Ragtime Era," a most entertaining series based on songs of the turn of the century. Also outstanding were "Main Street" and "Photography—The Incisive Art."

The entire NAEB Convention was one of the most enlightening and stimulating conventions we have ever attended—in fact, we ended up with enough background material to write a dozen columns.

We learned of progress in school telecasting with reports from many cities throughout the country, we heard of intriguing technical developments such as a "thinking machine" that writes television scripts, we watched demonstrations by Ampex of the many advancements in the use of TV tape, we talked with such noted participants in the conference as Dr. Frank Baxter (soon to be seen in coming Bell Telephone Hour), Dr. Edward Teller (eminent nuclear scientist who will guest on NGC's "The Nation's Future"), Sylvester (Pat) Weaver, Steve Allen—all of them vitally interested in creative television.

We heard of exciting international developments in the bright new world of the future. One of the latest developments in this field is a cultural exchange project between the National Educational Center and RAI (Radiotelevisione Italiana). The best of RAI's documentary programs will be carried on NET's network, while RAI in turn will telecast many of the Center's programs.

So perhaps the time is not too far distant when a teacher conducting a class in social studies may merely turn the dial, and through the magic of television, the students will be tuned in on countries throughout the world.

HI-FI TEEN CLUB WELL ORGANIZED

Daly City Department of Recreation's Hi-Fi Teen Club first became active in the Northern California Youth Council in March 1959. After attending the first planning conference in preparation for the 1959 Asilomar Conference, the Teen Club found the N.C.Y.C. to be very helpful in many ways.

Any youth club, center or organization which is a democratic, non-profit making group of self-governing youth which has a responsible adult adviser may join the N.C.Y.C.

Membership of a club or group in the Northern California Youth Council automatically makes the adult advisor a member of the Adult Advisory Council and indicates that the group's sponsoring agency will accept its share of responsibility. The policies and program of the N.C.Y.C. are determined by the delegates and advisors of the member groups.

The youth themselves run the N.C.Y.C. Youth officers elected by the youth delegates at the annual conference carry on the program between conferences.

Membership in the Council offers each organization a chance to become acquainted with similar groups throughout Northern California. It provides the opportunity to learn the problems and programs of other areas. Program ideas may be exchanged at "swap shops." It keeps all member youth groups abreast with new developments on the California scene regarding youth. It allows each organization the use of its consultation service.

In the past three weeks, a general summary on the history, organization, goals and advantages of the N.C.Y.C. have been presented. Any youth group interested in joining may obtain an application by writing the Hi-Fi Teen Club, Department of Recreation, 144 Hillside boulevard, Daly City.

The Hi-Fi Teen Club currently has 650 members.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS EXPLAIN SOCIAL SECURITY ACT CHANGES

(Editor's Note: The Social Security Administration offers these questions and answers to explain recent amendments to the Social Security Act which bring more benefits to residents).

Q—How was the required time to become insured shortened?

A—Before, you needed social security credits for a period equal to one-half the time after 1950 (or age 21 if later) and before retirement age (62 for women, 65 for men) or death. Now, you need have credit for only one quarter of work under social security for each three calendar quarters between 1950 (or the year you reached age 21) and the year in which you reach retirement age or die. If you reach retirement age before 1957, you need only six credits (1-½ years) to be fully insured. You will need 2-¼ years of credit if you reached retirement age in 1958, 2-½ if in 1959, 3 if in 1960, 3-¼ if in 1961, etc.

Q—My claim was turned down last year because I had credit for only 11 of the needed 17 quarters. Can I now collect my social security?

A—Yes. You should apply again as soon as convenient for you to contact your social security office, or a representative of that office when he is in your community.

Q—My husband died in 1939. He was covered by social security, but I was told that year and several times later that I could not collect on his social security when I am 62. Has that been changed?

A—Yes. Survivors of workers who died after 3/31/38 and before 1/1/40 can be now paid the same as survivors of workers who died after 1939. A widow who is 62, has not remarried, and has not built up a higher payment by her own work, can collect monthly widow's benefits. Adult children who have been disabled since before their 18th birthday, may now be paid monthly benefits based on the record of a parent who died after 3/31/38. The same is true for dependent parents of such deceased persons. Of course, the deceased person must have had credit for at least 1-½ years of work under social security.

Q—My minor child was not eligible for benefits when his real father died because he was living with and being supported by his stepfather, my present husband. Do the 1960 amendments change that in any way?

A—Yes. A child can now always be paid on his natural father's earnings record, even though living with and supported by a stepfather.

Q—My father works in my store. When do I start reporting his wages for social security credits?

A—Your first report will be filed in April 1961, covering the first three months of 1961, and then each following calendar quarter will be reported in the first month following such quarter. However, for work on a farm, reports are made annually rather than quarterly, the first report to be made in January 1962 for the full year of 1961.

Q—I work for a nonprofit organization. How can I now get social security coverage and credits?

A—The old requirement that two-thirds of the employees must agree to coverage has been repealed. Now, one employee may get such coverage if the governing board or body agrees to such coverage. Once the organization files a waiver to cover one or more employees, all persons hired after that date are covered on a compulsory basis.

Q—How long must a wife be a wife in order to collect on her husband's social security?

A—Before September 1960, she must have been married to the beneficiary for at least three years; now she can qualify after the marriage has been in effect for 1 year.

Q—I have read the questions in this series, but didn't find the question I'd like answered. How can I get the information I want?

A—Contact your social security office. The office at 761 South Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco serves residents of Daly City, Colma, and Pacifica.

Thunderbird

The new adventure in excellence... keyed to the West

Changes in so unique and desirable a car have always been approached with restraint. Although unmistakably new, the Thunderbird for 1961 retains its classic lines, its ideally compact size and its 4-passenger luxury. But within those self-imposed limits now come major advancements to carry on the great Thunderbird tradition.

An engineering "first" has been achieved in a steering wheel* that literally moves — as much as ten inches to the right — when the transmission is set in the "PARK" position. This permits unbelievable ease in entering and leaving the driver's seat.

A trio of power assists has been made standard equipment this year — larger power brakes that now adjust themselves automatically, new power steering that reduces effort by 65% while providing even better road feel, and vacuum-controlled Cruise-O-Matic transmission.

In addition to many engineering miracles is a brilliant, new design concept that will appeal to the most discriminating tastes while actually contributing to passenger comfort and convenience.

This, then, is Thunderbird for '61, truly an ultimate car for those who demand simple elegance, superb craftsmanship and unmatched performance. The highest resale record for any luxury car attests to its value. Judge it on the road soon but see it now... at your nearby Ford dealer's.

OLPH Footballers Win 8th Grade Title By Downing Holy Angels, 26-0

Daly City's touch-football leagues draw to a close this Saturday with only one of the four division winners already crowned.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help clinched the 8th Grade Division title Saturday with a 26-0 romp over Holy Angels. Quarterback Rich Holmberg, end Gerry Nolan, and halfback Jerry Senkir shared the spotlight for the winners. Holmberg tossed a touchdown pass to Senkir and also scored himself on an end run. Nolan intercepted a pass and went 15 yards for a touchdown. Senkir scored a second TD on a 25-yard end run. The win gave O.L.P.H. a second straight 8th Grade title.

The PAL Raiders hold the runner-up spot to O.L.P.H. by virtue of a 20-6 win over Benjamin Franklin. Quarterback Dan Driscol scored twice, on a 40-yard end run and a two-yard trap play up the middle. Driscol passed to Jim Hoffman on a play that covered 30 yards for the final Raider score. The longest play of the day resulted in the Ben Franklin score. Jim Frost threw a 20-yard pass to John Felsinger who scampered 30 yards for the tally.

The BYA Darts cinched at least a tie for the 7th Grade title with a 25-6 win over the BYA Rams. John Heick led the scoring for the Darts with two TDs. Craig Castro and Greg Brenk each scored once for the winners. Lee Williams intercepted a pass and went 35 yards for the only Ram score.

OLPH and the PAL Colts are the only teams that remain in contention. The Darts would have to falter against Ben Franklin Saturday if either team wishes to share the championship honors.

OLPH eked out a 6-2 defensive victory over Ben Franklin. The game's only score came on a 10-yard pass from Roger Sutter to Bob Reese. Sutter was later trapped in the end zone for a safety and Benjamin Franklin's two points.

The Colts easily beat the Daly City Foghorns, 19-0, behind the passing of George Egan. Egan connected twice with Bill Hernan for scores. The pass run plays covered 20 and 40 yards. Kenny Dye scored the third Colt touchdown when he returned an intercepted pass 20 yards for the score.

The stage has been set for the 6th Grade championship game this Saturday when the first place BYA Untouchables meet the second place PAL Jets. The Jets defeated the Daly City Drugs BYA, 21-8, behind the fine play of Larry Black, Keith Stoller and Val Sabuco. The Untouchables won by default over OLPH.

The OLPH Bobcats need a win over Holy Angels Saturday to win the 5th Grade Division. Steve Gudelj led the Cats Saturday to a 20-0 win over the BYA Flying Goose. Gudelj connected three times on TD passes with his fleet-footed ends and half-backs. Rich Hall scored first on a 50-yard pass run. Tim Christen followed on a 30-yard pass-run play, and Gudelj hit Stan Radjotes for the final score. Hall was also on the receiving end of two conversion passes from Gudelj.

The BYA Falcons defeated Holy Angels, 12-8, on two intercepted pass returns. Guy Kubowitz brought one back from 30 yards out and Phil Vangene returned one 35 yards. The Falcons with a win over the Flying Goose this week, and combined with an OLPH loss this week could mean the championship.

More Big Games At W'lake Bowl

Westlake bowlers are improving by leaps and bounds this fall as league play has steadied down and the keglers are rolling regularly, according to Johnny Swanson, proprietor of Westlake Bowl.

Mary Lawson of Lawson Roofing team just missed a triplicate and/or a stepladder during the same series. Mary rolled 167-168-168.

Ruth Keeffe, bowling for St. Thomas More league, fired the best game of her career last week when she posted a 205 and a 495 series.

Pat Hunter drew a gasp from the spectators of the Thelendo team when she threw a perfect ball to pick up the 6-7-10 split.

In the St. Emydius league, Gertrude L'Allier had a fine 209-147-148-504 series, while Rose Intascher rolled a 202-160-184-546.

Plaudits to young Ken Erickson of the YMCA league who notched a 157-163-320 duo.

Dave Lorin was busting his Associated Insurance Brokers shirt with joy when he picked up a 224-222-180-626 series.

The first wagon road over the Sierra Nevada, between Murphy's, California and Carson Valley, Nevada, was opened to traffic in 1836.

LOSS of six straight games hasn't diminished the enthusiasm of Jefferson High's varsity football coaching staff. The Indians, who meet unbeaten San Mateo here today, are predominantly sophs, juniors and little-experienced seniors. Next year their lessons may pay off. STATE ANNOUNCES BEST AREAS FOR BAGGING THOSE PHEASANTS

The population outlook for the 1960 pheasant season which opens November 12 statewide and continues through November 27 in most areas is about the same as last year.

A 10-day season on two Southern California cooperatives ends November 21 and a 30-day season in Imperial County and eastern Riverside ends December 11.

Best populations of birds are in the Colusa, Butte, Sutter and eastern Glenn areas. San Joaquin and Sacramento Valley pheasant populations are rated by the Department of Fish and Game about the same as preseason 1959. In the Delta area, the Department reported a few more birds than last year.

In Northern California areas, including the pheasant bowl, shooting hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. In Southern California counties, including Mono and Inyo, shooting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset. On Etiwanda and Morena cooperative hunting areas shooting hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

In Northern California, the seasonal bag limit is 10 male pheasants, with two per day being permitted on Nov. 12 and 13 and four per day thereafter until the seasonal bag limit is attained. In Southern California areas, including Mono and Inyo Counties, the seasonal bag limit is 10 birds of either sex, two birds per day.

A valid 1960 hunting license and pheasant tags are required to hunt pheasants in California. Tags, which are available from any license agent in the State, sell for $2. A tag must be punched and attached immediately to a leg of each pheasant taken.

Since agents in outlying areas may be temporarily out of tags at any given time, hunters are advised to obtain their tags before leaving home.

SEA HAWKS NOW 3-2

Oceana Gridders' Streak Ends, Lose To Burlingame Eleven, 20-6

Complacency — that creeping menace of all coaches—finally caught up with coach Floyd Gonella's Oceana High Sea Hawks last week in a losing 20-6 effort to a strong Burlingame team.

Three straight wins after an opening loss to San Carlos, concluding with a smashing 39-20 victory of San Rafael Military in which every man on the team played in a vain Gonella effort to keep the score down, apparently caused it.

"They went 60 yards for a quick score on the second scrimmage play of the game," explains Gonella, "and then got cocky."

The next thing that happened was an Oceana fumble converted into an enemy touchdown, and that was the game.

"I hope that game served as an object lesson," says Gonella, "Next year we'll be playing regular varsity competition and we won't be able to let down for one minute."

On the bright side of football, halfback Fred Mason, who scored three touchdowns against San Rafael, continues to play fine ball, as do his backfield running mates, quarterback Don Katona, half Jim Boyett and fullback Dennis Carruthers.

Oceana's cross-country team continues to surprise even coach Dennis Lanterman, who tosses adjectives around like nothing could surprise him.

Lanterman's bare-legged wonders recently scored their third straight triple win (junior varsity, sophomore and freshmen) in a three way meet with Burlingame and Westmoor.

In what was originally scheduled as a dual meet between Burligame and the Rams, the fledging Oceana team was allowed to compete and wound up sweeping the boards on the Westmoor-Oceana track.

Sophomore Dan Vincent continued on his record shattering trail by setting another new school record of 9:50.4 in the soph race for the 1.9 mile.

Mike Peek set an Oceana frosh record (1.4 miles) of 7:08.6 in topping the freshman race, which the Sea Hawks completely dominated, taking the first five spots with Floyd Crippen, John Kenny, Bill Orth and Gary Cozell closing in behind Peek.

Seahawks were 1-2-3 in the junior varsity event, junior Jim Fanucchi followed.

Oceana's first annual Invitational cross-country meet was a huge success. Oceana placed third in very stiff varsity competition.

Steve Little, Dan Vincent, Frank Rhodes, Carl Harris, Bob Fulton, Bob Hernandez and Pat Sanderson won medals for Oceana.

WESTMOOR HOSTS CAP, INDIANS FACE MATEANS

Hillsdale Jolts Rams Out Of Title Picture; Jeff Loses Sixth Game

Hustling Hillsdale dynamited Westmoor's title hopes last Friday, 27-19, after Jeff High's winless Indians floundered at Burlingame, 19-0, as the Peninsula League race entered the homestretch with San Mateo on top with a 4-0 record.

Westmoor's loss gave the Westlakers a 2-2 loop mark and Jeff's setback left the Indians with an 0-4, tied for the basement with South City.

Coach Pete Matisi's Rams scored twice in the final period against the Knights, but it was too late. Hillsdale led at the quarter junctions, 7-0, 13-6, and 20-6.

This week Westmoor hosts Capuchino (3-1) and Jeff entertains (?) San Mateo.

Coach Joe McGrath said the Indians "played their worst" against Burlingame, a club that also isn't setting the world on fire.

Next week, Jeff meets Westmoor in their fourth annual classic. The Rams are ahead in the series, 2-1, but McGrath isn't discounting an upset.

Westmoor winds up the campaign November 23 at Mills while Jeff invades South City and hopes to make it four straight over the Warriors in the North Peninsula's annual big game.

The Rams boast four boys worthy of all-league honors — scatbacks Tom Dake and Walt Prouty, and linemen Roger Austin and Ken Magoon. Senior Bob Guerrero, defensive tackle, and guard Ed Crowley are Jeff's best performers to date.
